Confession of Cook.

CHARLESTOWN, Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1859. The confession of Cook, which was yesterday read in Court, is jealously guarded, for surposes to be hereafter developed. Its importance is hardly sufficient to warrant such care. The document, which filled twenty-one pages of foolscap, threw comparatively little new light on the Harper's Ferry affair. It was mostly a record of Cook's personal experiences. It related how he first became acquainted with Brown in 1856, just after the battle of Black Jack; how he was induced to join Brown to cooperate with him in his labors for securing the freedom of Kansas; how certain expeditions for rescuing slaves from Missouri, and setting them free in Canada, were accomplished, and similar details equally irrelevant. The more important portions were those which told of the Convention held in Canada, at which the wellknown constitution was framed; of the military training under Stevens, which Brown's party went through, altering their original intention, which was to be instructed by Col. Forbes, and of his own exploration of Jefferson County, Va., under Brown's directions, to prepare the way for the insurrection.

Gerrit Smith, Fred. Douglass, Dr. S. G. Howe, and others, were mentioned in the confession, but not in a way to deeply implicate them. Their connection with Brown involved, however, the presentation of pistols, money, &c. Cook said that the time of the invasion would have been different but for the information given by Col. Forbes. But, altegether, the confession does not bear very strongly upon the case, and it is the opinion of the Court that Cook has withheld the greater part of his knowledge. For certain reasons the paper is kept secret, and will not be permitted to be pub-

The Harper's Ferry Troubles-Trial of Cook.

CHARLESTOWN, Va., Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1859. The trial of Cook commenced yesterday, and the court room was crowded. Gov. Willard and Mr. Crowley, brothers-in-law of the prisoner, were seated beside him. He pleaded guilty to all the counts in the indictment, except that of treason. The prisoner was well dress d, firm, and dignified.

The demurrer to the treason count was argued and overruled by the Court. The Jury were then sworn, and the same question

Philadelphia, Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1859.

The Schiller Centennary was celebrated here this evening by the Germans by an imposing procession. From 1,500 to 2,000 of them turned out, with lighted torches, transparencies, and other devices, including a large bell and printing press. The German residents along the route illuminated their houses, and made a brilliant display of fireworks. Salutes were fired while the procession was on the march. On reaching Broad street the torches were gathered into a pile and consumed, and the crowd, after listening to an appropriate address, discreted. printe address, dispersed.

CAPTURE OF TWO NOTED BURGLARS .- This morning, between 12 and 1 o'clock, Sergeants De Voursney and Mathews, and Officer Howell of the Fourteenth Precinct, arrested two notorious burglars, named Jol a McCune alias Cobbler Jack and Henry Jacobs, in the act of burglariously entering the silk importing house of Wilson Midgeley & Jennings, No. 498 Broadway. A young man named Cochran, residing at 42 Cros-by street, saw several men upon the roof of the roar extension of No 498, and knowing they had no business there hastened to the Station-House and informed the Police of the fact. The above-named officers at once repaired to the ground, and after some difficulty arrested Cobbler Jack, and Jacobs. Officer Howell fired his revolver at Jack, but without effect. Another of the gang was seen in the neighborhood, but it was impossible to capture him. A large jimmy and a key were the only articles found upon the accused. They had just got to work, and had nipped off a portion of the rear iron shutter. Both prisoners were handcuffed and locked up in the Fourteenth Ward Station-House.

Six Days Later from California.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

$1,568,107 in Specie.

U. S. Mail steamship Atlantic, Pierson, from Aspinwall 2d inst., with mose. and 344 passengers, arrived here at 3 o'clock this morning. She brings $1,568,107 in specie. The steamship North Star, hence 20th ult., had not arrived at Aspinwall when the Atlantic sailed.

By the purser's report we learn that the Atlantic, which left this city in company with the North Star Oct. 20, reached Aspinwall on the 28th of the same month, making the run in 7 days and 18 hours. She parted with the North Star when one day out, and has not seen or heard of her since, she not having arrived at Aspinwall when the Atlantic left on her return trip, on the 2d inst., nor had anything been heard of the Vanderbilt mail steamer at Panama.

The news brought by the Atlantic is six days later than that received overland a few days since. Gen. Scott reached San Francisco on Sunday, Oct.

16, and left for San Juan Island the next day. He was received with great enthusiasm. Gov. Weller had not yet appointed a successor to the late Mr. Broderick in the United States Senate; though it was thought he might do so within a fort-Bayard Taylor was to leave San Francisco on the 20th nlt.

During the fortnight ending on the 8th ult., 360 ounces of gold dust from the Walker's River Mines were deposited in the Mint. It averaged only 508 fine, some of it containing more silver than gold.

Dates from Victoria to the 10th October had been received at San Francisco. The Hudson's Bay Company had laid claim to large tracts of land about all their trading posts in British Columbia.

FROM THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

The semi-monthly mail reached Panama on the 21st October, bringing dates from Chili to Sept. 30, and from Peru to Oct. 12.

On the 18th September, during the celebration of the anniversary of Chilian national independence, General Vidaurri Seal, Governor of Valparaiso, was shot by rioters, who seized the arms of the National Guard. The riot was instigated by the leaders in the late revo-

PANAMA.

News from Bogota to Sept. 17 had been received at Panama. But it was not important. The revolutionary spirit was yet alive, but not very active. In Santander, Cauca, Bolivar and Magdalena, it is more formidable, and the Federal Government is set at de-

The President has convoked the Congress for Febmary, 1860; but it was doubtful whether it would assemble. If not the Cass-Herran Convention will have to remain another year without ratification, unless the United States insists upon action.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

The screw-steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool Oct. 26 and Queenstown 28th, arrived about 2 o'clock this morning.

Oct. 29, fifty miles west of Cape Clear, exchanged signals with steamship City of Manchester, hence for Liverpool. Same day, passed steamship Europa, from Halifax for Liverpool. Nov. 5, lat. 47 30, passed an iceberg. Nov. 6, off Cape Race, passed steamship Canada, bound east.

The chief part of the news, being to the 26th, has been anticipated. The following dispatch, however, is two days later:

THE LATEST. By Telegraph to Queenstown.
THURSDAY, Midnight, Oct. 28. Cotton active and advancing. Sales of the day sailing of the City of Baltimore 17,000 bales, 5,000 bales of which were to speculators and exporters. Breadstuffs quiet and steady. Provisions dull, but market generally unchanged. Sugar firm. Other articles generally unchanged.

London, Thursday Evening.

Consols 952 for Money, and 952 for Account. Market decidedly stringent.

Arrived, Tornado and Neptune, from New-York. The loss of the Royal Charter, near Bangor, has been fully confirmed, but owing to the prostration of telegraphs, and damage of railroads, details have not yet been published. Over 460 persons on board perished, and only thirty were saved. All the officers perished. The ship was breaking up, butit is supposed the treasure was saved.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

THE SICILIAN VESPERS.

The second performance of this work was enjoyed by a crowded and brilliant audience. The music was better given, on the whole, than on the first night, and a number of points were unanimously approved and encored. The nature of the music -dealing as it doce in combination pieces-is such that several hearings are requisite to a fair understanding of it. We find, upon additional consideration of this opera, every reason to confirm our original impressions.

The physical illustration of "The Vespers" is mag nificent. There are scenes which, for costume, group ing, and scene-painting, are elegant and interesting studies, and fully equal to any similar renderings in the great opera-houses of Europe. An opportunity is now offered to the public to recognize the great liberal-ity of the direction, and to stimulate it to further efforts in favor of a lyrical drama fulfilling all the claims of sight and sound. The Vespers will be repeated on Friday night.

THE VIRGINIA INSURRECTION.

The Charlestown correspondent of The Baltimore American writes as follows:

A FEMALE STATATHEER.

There was considerable stir in town on Saturday, it having been anmounced that Mrs. Lydis Maria Child, an authoress and poetess of some repute, had arrived in the afternoon train. On inquiry it was ascertained that the lady was a Mrs. Spring, from Boston. She is quite a fine-looking lady, about 50 years of age, and dresses with much taste. She is accompanied by a young man who represents himself as her soa, who is also of very genteel appearance. Immediately after their arrival in town they proceeded to the jail and made application for admittance, which was refused. After a short consultation and several inquiries, they made their way to the residence of Mr. David Howell, one of our most wealthy and respected citizens, and a member of the Society of Friends, where the lady made known her mission and desired Mr. H.'s said in getting an interview with Brown and his fellow-prisoners. She was in a very polite but candid manner informed by Mr. Howell that he would do nothing toward furthering her wishes, as he was decively of the opinion that she was doing no honor to the respectable Society with which she claimed to be connected by running about the country and offering her services to "nurse" and "soothe" the perpetrators of the terrible crimes of which Brown and company have been convicted. Nothing dannted, she made application to Dr. Mason, the physician of the jail, who informed her that permission to enter would be granted her the next day (Sabbath). When Brown was informed of her arrival, he said he did not want to see her, and immediately had a telegraph dispatch forwarded to Mrs. Child and other Northern volunteers to stay at home, stating that, if they had any money to spare, he would prefer his wife should have it. Mrs. Spring visited Brown on Sabbath, according to appointment, accompanied by her son, and was kindly received by Brown and Stevens. She remained with them some time, and visited them again in th

P. S.—It is now rumored that the man Stevens will be tried before Judge Parker, Mr. Harding, the prosecuting attorney, so far declining to enter a notle presequi in the case. He also declares his intention to have the closing argument in the remaining cases. The Judge has the power to remove the case without the concurrence of the "Prosecutor," but it is supposed will decline to take the authority on himself.

H. D. B. THE WRONGS AND THE REMEDY OF THE ANGLO AFRICAN.-Last evening the fourth of the Anglo-

African course of lectures was delivered in Shiloh Church, Prince street, by the Hon. E. D. Culver, his subject being "The Wrongs and the Remedy of the Anglo-African." After a brief reference to the inviting nature of the field which was opened up by this theme, he proceeded to consider the Wrongs of the Angle-African in the following order: First, the Civil Angie-African in the following order: Pirst, the Cival Wrongs; second, the Social Wrongs, and third, the Religious Wrongs. The first of these he divided into the wrongs perpetrated by the General Government, and those perpetrated by the State Government. He disposed of these wrongs in their various aspects in an able and elequent style of argument. Of the religious wrongs, he referred to those inflicted by the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Protestant Episcopal Churches. He also paid some telling eulogistic remarks upon Gerrit Smith, W. H. Seward, Chas. Sumner, Joshua R. Giddings, John Q. Adams, Queen Victoria, and John Brown. His defense of Brown was conclusive, inasmuch as he argued that, in reverthey had upheld their own mode of procedure, in dealing with the brutal outrages committed openly, systematically, and avowedly by Southern men against men of the North. He concluded by urging upon the people to have lofty aspirations, and to cultivate the pursu of refinement, that they might reach the sur

THE SCHILLER FESTIVAL .- Last evening was commenced the three days celebration of the centennary anniversary of the birthday of Schiller, which by spontaneous consent is festally observed throughout the German world. In almost every town, large or small, in the Fatherland, and among its scattered sons from Constantinople to San Francisco, honors almost divine are paid to-day to the genius and heroism of the undying poet. In New-York the festival consisted last evening of a grand concert at the City Assembly Rooms, in which music was rendered by an orehestra of seventy performers, with the aid of Liederkrans and Sangerbund, Madames Caradori and Zimmer-man, and Messrs. Mayer, Steinway, and Gustav Satter; man, and Messrs. Mayer, Stemway, and Guard Satery the directors being Messrs. Eisfeld, Anschütz, Berg-man, and Pauer. The music comprised two pieces from Wagner's Tannhadser, Beethoven's fourth con-certo, a piece by Rietz called Schiller's Dythyrambs, and Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, ending with Schiller's hymn An die Freude. The rooms were crowded with an intently appreciative audience. To-day will be given at the Academy Wallenstein's Lager, and a series of tableaux illustrative of scenes in

IMPROVEMENT IN FIREARMS.-An improvem priming for arms has just been brought into market by the American Priming and Arma Company of this city. This priming is intended to supersede the percussion cap, and consists in forming detonating powder into small rolls, or sticks, each of which contains material enough for 20 charges. This detonator is placed in an ingenious devices connected with the hammer of an or-dinary lock, when it is fed, cut off, and discharged by the single operation of cocking and firing the piece, so that 20 charges may be fired from a music or other arm with one priming. As these primers are made per-factly waterproof without the use of copper or other metallic covering, they are not liable to the injurious effects sometimes produced by particles flying off from ordinary caps, and are also much lighter, the detecting powder itself forming the entire weight. The prop allegethat they are more effective than the or lines and should they prove to be so in practice, th venience, lightness, compactness, and additional safety —as the arm is never primed until fully cocked,—must make them invaluable for both army and sporting pur-
